

CHAPTER 7
The Battle Begins

Journal your answers to these questions as you read through the chapter this week. You may wish to read one day and journal the next, or spread the questions over the whole week.

1. What can we learn about godly leadership and succession planning as we watch the baton passed from Moses to Joshua?
2. We often draw black and white lines when we disagree with others. Read Joshua 5:13-14. How do people today include Jesus to ensure He's on "their side?"
3. God gave Joshua assurances to face the coming battles, but Joshua still had to act in faith. What battles are you currently facing? How can God's presence and promises change the way you cope with them?
4. Do you suppose God viewed Rahab as a woman of sin or a woman of faith? Who in your life needs to be viewed through "grace-colored glasses?"
5. How does the destruction of peoples and cities in the Promised Land square with God's Upper Story of redemption?
6. Observe the battle between Israel-Gibeon and the five kings of the Amorites (p. 95-98). What human factors and what divine factors led to victory? What parallels can be drawn between this battle and your own spiritual battles today?
7. Joshua is known for the statement "as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD" (Joshua 24:15). What habits and attitudes have you seen in other families that are good examples of leading a household in serving the LORD? How can you emulate them?
